ANNOUNCER: Today there is a call for help from children you don't know and will probably never meet. Their families now have no homes, no clean drinking water and their risk of contracting infectious diseases is enormous.

Thousands have died and more than 1 million survivors have been devastated by the 2008 cyclone that struck within some of Myanmar's more remote cities, towns and villages.

UNICEF is working closely with the Government of Myanmar to respond to the cyclone crisis. UNICEF has issued an emergency appeal for millions of dollars to fund relief efforts supporting survivors of this overwhelming natural disaster. UNICEF needs your contribution.

Please go to www.unicefusa.org/myanmar to make a secure, tax-deductible donation to the U.S. Fund for UNICEF, supporting UNICEF's emergency relief efforts for children in Myanmar. Or call 1.800.4UNICEF to donate by phone. 1,800, the number 4, UNICEF.
