

O'Connell Produces Audio Project for Cary's Computerbilities

IT Service Provider Taps Raleigh Audio Producer to Voice and Produce Media Project

CARY, NC, December 27, 2018 - - IT service provider Computerbilities, LLC, headquartered in Cary, North Carolina, recently secured voiceover talent Peter K. O'Connell and his production company audio'connell Voiceover Talent to produce an audio marketing project.

Part of the "Business Builder" interview series, O'Connell produced and served as host of the business to business audio marketing program, featuring an interview with Computerbilities president, Adam Pittman. In the audio media project, Pittman discussed simple but effective ways business owners can make smarter choices when selecting an IT service provider for their company.

After working with O'Connell on the audio project, Adam Pittman noted: "Thanks to his coaching, editing skills, and voice talent, Peter was able to give us an extremely professional product. The recording process, his level of expertise, and the final product all exceeded my expectations."
