FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Production Completed on Wilcove's No Way Home Audiobook

Male Voice Talent Peter K. O'Connell Served As Narrator

BUFFALO, New York, February 28, 2008 - - Having surpassed $900 million in sales, according to the Audio Publishers Association, the audience for audiobooks is growing rapidly and the genre will soon include a new title. Production had been completed on author David S. Wilcove's chronicle of the decline of the world's great animal migrations entitled No Way Home, published by Island Press. Narrator for the audiobook was professional male voice talent Peter K. O'Connell, president of audio'connell Voice Over Talent.

A professor of ecology and evolutionary biology at Princeton University, Wilcove's book describes how the phenomenon of animal migration is disappearing around the world based on many reasons ranging from climate change to cell phone towers. In addition to revealing the threats to the migration of birds, butterflies, fish, whales and large mammals across the globe, the book also outlines why these animals migrate and how they know when and where to travel.

A professional voice over talent and audio producer for over 25 years, Peter O'Connell is president of audio'connell Voice Over Talent, a worldwide, English language-based voice talent company. He also operates International Voice Talents, featuring foreign language male and female voice actors.

Both organizations provide professional voice talent for commercials, animation, corporate narrations, documentaries, broadcast voice imaging, audio books, podcasts and messaging on-hold (MOH). Industries served by the two companies include advertising agencies, media and broadcast production companies as well as both large and small businesses around the world.

Mr. O'Connell also owns Voice Over Workshop, which provides professional voice over training to novice and experienced voice talent around the world.

The three businesses are all a part of O'Connell Companies.
