Catholic Catechism Video Series Narrated By O'Connell

72-part DVD Series Creatively Shares Catholic Traditions with a World-wide Audience

TRIESNBERG, Liechtenstein, March 25, 2013 - - Voice Talent Peter K. O'Connell is the narrator for a new international DVD series on the Catholic Catechism, entitled "The 3 Minute Catechism". With O'Connell narrating the English-language version, the 72-part series is also currently available in German and Spanish. Translations in French, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, Croatian, Czech, Chinese and Arabic are currently in production.

In book form, The Catholic Catechism is an organized collection of the fundamental teachings of the Catholic Church, which, as the compendium notes, reflects Catholic faith and morals "in the light of the Second Vatican Council and the whole of the church's tradition."

"The 3 Minute Catechism" consists of 72 hand-drawn and animated episodes each about 3-4 minutes long. The 2 DVD series follows and explains the Creed, covering all four parts of the Catechism. Easier and more difficult subjects are treated in separate episodes making "The 3 Minute Catechism" a modern introduction to the Catholic faith for ages 12 to 120. The series is available for sale from Kathmedia via the web at http://www.3mc.me/eng/index_eng.html
